Chair Deans

Thank you for your email. As we have discussed in our one-on-one meeting, our Board meetings, our meetings with the Mayor and the Council briefing meetings I encourage you as Board Chair/Councillor and other city officials to use your influence to secure additional resources/supports for a safe lawful end to the demonstration. I once again accept your full support to secure more resources. This aligns with my statement that there may not be a police solution to this demonstration despite the fact that we are doing everything reasonable to resolve the situation safely and lawfully.

You are also aware of the OPS efforts to secure additional resources from RCMP, OPP and municipal services. Yesterday, I sent another round of resource requests to the RCMP that they are still trying to confirm. I am preparing to send another resource list to the RCMP today. I have had a meeting with Commissioner Lucki today to advise her of the new resource request coming in today. Commissioner Lucki advised once again that she will continue to do her best to support our resource requests.

Please let me know if you need any more information.

Regards,

ps

Good afternoon Chief Sloly,

Thank you for providing the Board and Council with yesterday's briefing.

As you heard, my colleagues in the downtown core are desperately requesting more resources for their communities. The areas that have been most impacted continue to be subjected to incessant noise, verbal abuse, sexual harassment, and are fearful to walk around their neighbourhood. As Chair of the Police Services Board, I am offering you my full support in securing any additional resources you need to ensure the residents of Centertown, the Byward Market, and Sandy Hill feel safe and that our laws are fully enforced. With the anticipation of the arrival of additional protesters and heavy vehicles, time is of the essence.

I recognize that this is a very fluid situation and I know the stress and pressure under which you have been working. Thank you for your service. The Board is here to support you and willing to help in any way that we can.

Thank you,

Diane Deans
Chair, Ottawa Police Services Board
